MOVIES REVIEW

American Dreamz – 107 mins (PG): On the verge of a nervous breakdown, the President is pushed back into the spotlight to be a guest judge on a weekly talent show...a show that is full of surprises. Starring Hugh Grant and Mandy Moore.

Garfield 2: A Tale of Two Kitties – 78 mins (G): Garfield follows his owner Jon to England and while there is mistaken for a look-alike, regal cat who has inherited a castle. Garfield savours the royal treatment while he can, however his reign is soon in jeopardy.

Wah-wah – 97 mins (M): Told through the eyes of young Ralph Compton and set in Swaziland, this film focuses on the dysfunctional Compton family whose gradual disintegration mirrors the end of British rule.

Keeping up with the Steins – 99 mins (PG): A comedy about a high-powered Hollywood agent who is determined to pull out all stops and have the most extravagant celebration ever seen.

On a Clear Day – 98 mins (PG): Determined to put his life back together after losing his job, Frank attempts the ultimate test of endurance - to swim the English Channel.

The Lake House – 105 mins (PG): A lonely doctor who once occupied an unusual lakeside home begins exchanging love letters with its newest resident, a frustrated architect. When they discover they're living two years apart, they try to unravel the mystery behind their extraordinary romance before it's too late.

Cars – 116 mins (G): Lightning McQueen, a hotshot rookie racecar driven to succeed, discovers that life is about the journey, not the finish line, when he finds himself unexpectedly detoured in the sleepy town of Radiator Springs.

The Break-Up – 105 mins (PG): After Brooke calls it quits with her boyfriend Gary, neither is willing to move out of the condo they share. Taking advice from their respective friends and confidants, they both engage in mental warfare designed to force the other person to flee the premises.

Firewall – 105 mins (M): With his family held ransom, the head security executive for a global bank is commanded to loot his own business for millions in order to ensure his wife and children's safety. He faces thwarting the kidnapper's grand scheme, which makes him look guilty of embezzlement.

Just My Luck – 115 mins (PG): Manhattan socialite Ashley Albright is the luckiest woman in the world, a person to whom all the good things in life have come far too easily. Until, one night she goes to a masquerade ball and meets Jake, who has the worst luck.
