WALL•E – Comedy / Family. 98mins (G). Hundreds of years ago humans went to live in space, leaving behind a team of robots to clean up their polluted planet. WALL•E is the only one that remains but then EVE (a flying robot) enters his life.

Beverly Hills Chihuahua – Comedy / Family. 91mins (PG). Chloe is a spoiled Chihuahua (voiced by Drew Barrymore) who gets lost while on holiday in Mexico and tries to get back to her home in California's posh Beverly Hills - without being dognapped.

Star Wars: Clone Wars – Action / Family. 98mins (PG). In this animated Star Wars adventure the Jedi Knights are struggling to keep the peace as the Clone Wars sweep the galaxy. Anakin Skywalker must face Jabba the Hutt and Count Dooku while Obi-Wan Kenobi and Master Yoda try to turn the clone army away from the dark side.

Mamma Mia! – Comedy / Musical. 108mins (PG13). Based on the hit West End musical and featuring the songs of Abba, twenty-something Sophie lives in Greece with her mother Donna (Meryl Streep) but has never met her father. After finding her mother's diary, she secretly invites three of Donna's former flames to her upcoming wedding.

Young @ Heart – Drama / Documentary. 109mins (PG). This documentary has achieved critical and popular acclaim. Set in Massachusetts, it's the true story of the final weeks of rehearsal for the Young @ Heart Chorus, whose average age is 81, performing tunes by James Brown and Sonic Youth, among others.

Get Smart – Action / Comedy. 110mins (PG13). The Chief is forced to send in his bungling agent Maxwell Smart (Steve Carrell) after the headquarters of spy agency Control is attacked. With the clever and beautiful Agent 99 (Anne Hathaway) at his side, Smart will do whatever it takes to thwart the evil of KAOS.

The Dark Knight – Action / Crime. 145mins (PG13). Director Christopher Nolan takes the Batman franchise on its darkest journey yet as the smart but sadistic Joker (Heath Ledger) plagues Gotham City with crime and chaos.

Hellboy II: The Golden Army – Action / Fantasy. 120mins (PG13). Mysterious albino Prince Nuada is getting ready to return from exile and orders the The Golden Army to destroy the human race. This puts our demon superhero Hellboy (Ron Pearlman) back in the hot seat as he battles to save the day.

Battle in Seattle – Drama / Action. 99mins (R). It's Seattle, 1999, and tens of thousands of demonstrators take to the streets in protest of a World Trade Organization meeting. The peaceful protest soon becomes a full-scale riot. By mixing in footage from the actual event, this movie tells the same story from different points of view. Stars Woody Harrelson and Charlize Theron.

Sex and the City: The Movie – Comedy / Drama. 145mins (R). New York's favourite columnist and her girlfriends Samantha, Charlotte and Miranda are back in a full-length feature movie based on the TV series. Stars Sarah Jessica Parker.

Dr Seuss' Horton Hears a Who! – Comedy / Family. 86mins (G).

A Dr Seuss childhood favourite. Horton, a friendly elephant, hears a cry for help from a speck of dust that he soon discovers is home to an entire village of microscopic "Whos". Despite being teased by his friends, Horton agrees to protect them – "after all, a person is a person, no matter how small".

Nim's Island – Adventure / Family. 96mins (PG). When Nim's Island, a place of fantasy and exploration for imaginative young Nim, is threatened, she reaches out to her literary adventure hero, Alex Rover. Unbeknownst to her, Rover is a faint-hearted recluse locked away in a city apartment. The two must overcome their own challenges as they fight to save Nim's Island.

The Chronicles of Narnia: Prince Caspian – Adventure / Family. 147mins (PG13). A year after their first adventure in Narnia the four children return to the kingdom to find that hundreds of years have passed and Narnia is now controlled by ruthless King Miraz. With the help of Prince Caspian, the exiled heir to the throne, they set out to overthrow the evil ruler.

Man in the Chair – Comedy / Drama. 107mins (PG13). Young social misfit Cameron Kincaid enlists the help of Flash Madden, a bitter retired Hollywood studio gaffer with a hankering for classic movies and booze, to make a student film. The two form an unlikely friendship and Cameron learns much about life in the process. Starring Christopher Plummer.

Leatherheads – Comedy / Drama. 114mins (PG13). Set in the 1920s, charming but brash football hero Dodge Connolly is determined to guide his team to success. When Dodge convinces college football sensation Carter Rutherford to join the struggling team, he gets more than he bargained for when the two compete for the same woman. Starring George Clooney and Renée Zellweger.

What Happens in Vegas – Comedy / Romance. 99mins (PG13).

Cameron Diaz and Ashton Kutcher star as strangers who, after a night of debauchery in Vegas, wake up and find they're husband and wife. Things get even more problematic when one of them wins a huge jackpot after playing the other's quarter.

Fool's Gold – Adventure / Comedy. 113mins (PG13). A new clue to the location of a lost treasure provides hope for deep-sea treasure hunter Benjamin Finnegan. But to reach his goal he needs to convince a multi-millionaire to bankroll the project, persuade his ex-wife to join him in the search, and keep other treasure hunters at bay. Starring Matthew McConaughey and Kate Hudson.

88 Minutes – Crime / Thriller. 108mins (R). College professor and forensic psychiatrist Dr Jack Gramm (Al Pacino) must use his skills and training to narrow down the possible suspects when he receives a death threat claiming he only has 88 minutes to live.

Street Kings – Crime / Drama. 109mins (R). When a disillusioned Los Angeles police officer is implicated in the execution of his former work partner, he's forced to go against the corrupt cop culture he's been part of his entire career to prove his innocence. Starring Keanu Reeves.

In the Hands of the Gods – Documentary. 106mins (not rated). A true story about five young British football fans in pursuit of a lifelong ambition: to meet their idol Argentinian soccer legend Diego Maradona. With no money, the group of five from very different backgrounds must use only their football skills and charm to get them from London to Buenos Aires.
